Foreign Intelligence Officers in Liaison with CIA in the United States

1. The Inspector General, at the request of the DCI, has recently completed an inventory of representatives of foreign intelligence services with whom CIA officers are in official contact in the United States. The DCI has approved the recommendations that the Inspector General make as a result of his survey, which are:

"a. That the Deputy Director for Support be directed to establish within the Office of Security and to maintain on a current basis a register of all representatives of foreign intelligence services ... with whom CIA officers are in recurring official contact in the United States.

"b. That the Deputy Directors responsible for the conduct of such liaison be directed to report to the Director of Security all additions to, deletions from, or changes in such liaison relationships as they occur. Information reported to the Director of Security should include:

"c. That the Director of Security be directed to forward semi-annually to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence and to the Executive Director a consolidated report listing all such liaison contacts in being as of the time the report is prepared.

- "d. That the Deputy Director for Support be directed to review Agency regulations and to have them revised, if necessary, to accomplish the above."
2. I have requested the Deputy Director for Support to proceed with the establishing of a register of foreign liaison contacts in the United States without waiting for any possible needed revisions in Agency regulations.

3. Will you please furnish to the Director of Security without delay pertinent information on each foreign liaison contact in the United States for which your Directorate is primarily responsible. Will you also issue such instructions within your Directorate as may be necessary to ensure that the Director of Security's register is at all times complete and current.

Some of the liaison contacts who should be included on this register may not be members of intelligence services and some, though intelligence officers, may not be officially accredited as liaison officers to CIA. Your lists should include all foreign officials who meet the following criteria:

5. You may wish to check your Directorate's initial list with the Inspector General against the list he prepared pertaining to your Directorate in the course of his survey.
